ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

CHRIL Research Assistant

Collaborative on Health Reform and Independent Living (CHRIL) June 2018- Present

WSU Spokane

- An hourly research assistantship to work on drafting CHRIL Center grants and projects. This research position also assists with the development and creation of disability related projects relevant to the mission of the CHRIL and collaborators. Activities include: website redesign, grant writing, and Disability Stories Project coordination.
- The Collaborative on Health Reform and Independent Living (CHRIL) is funded by a 5-year Disability and Rehabilitation Research Program (DRRP) from the National Institute on Disability, Independent Living, and Rehabilitation Research (NIDILRR grant number 90DP0075-01-00). The CHRIL brings together disability advocates and researchers from 4 institutions (Washington State University, the University of Kansas, George Mason University, and the Independent Living Research Utilization program at TIRR Memorial Hermann Hospital) to systematically investigate and disseminate essential findings about how the Affordable Care Act's implementation affects working age adults with disabilities.

ADVANCE at WSU Graduate Assistant

Washington State University

January 2018 – Present

Provost Office

- The graduate assistantship is provided to support the development and implementation of ADVANCE related projects and grants. In this position, I report to the director of ADVANCE at WSU and assist with program development, logistics and event coordination, website development, and marketing of ADVANCE related materials.
- ADVANCE at WSU strives to increase the participation of women with academic careers in the fields of science, technology, engineering, mathematics, and medicine (STEMM) and diverse faculty in any discipline by providing funding opportunities for individuals working toward achieving the program's goals. Our vision is to develop an inclusive research institution whose faculty are supported by a system that promotes career-long excellence for all, irrespective of gender or minority status. We focus on work/life transition points—especially those that disproportionately impact women and diverse faculty—and any obstacles to recruiting, hiring, retaining, and advancing exceptional, diverse faculty.

Graduate Research Assistant

Washington State University

January 2013-Summer 2018

- Scheduling community interviews and developing contacts in the Roundup Montana.
- Conducted qualitative in-depth interviews with community participants and fire agency personnel.

Liberating Structures Consultant for the Plexus Institute

Washington State University

Fall 2014- Fall 2018

- Liberating structures are microstructures that enhance relational coordination and trust. They introduce tiny shifts in the protocols of how we meet, plan, decide, and relate to each other. They put the facilitative power once reserved for experts in the hands of everyone. These microstructures can improve group dynamics for teaching and decision making.
- As a consultant for WSU, I coordinated several Liberating structures workshops and seminars with the assistance of WSU LS team members. With my guidance, the WSU GPSA now uses liberating structures to run GPSA senate meetings.

Graduate and Professional Student Association (GPSA)
