PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

ACCESS CENTER ACCESS ADVISOR AND AWARENESS COORDINATOR • WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY • JULY 2019-PRESENT

- As an Access Advisor, I advise and advocate on behalf of students with disabilities. I also review documentation, develop reasonable accommodation plans, and monitor the delivery of access services to students served.
- I also serve as a point of contact with faculty and student service offices such as counseling, academic success and career services, TRIO programs, and WSU Global Campus.
- In this position, I also serve on departmental, unity, and university committees and assist with developing program procedures.
- 15% of this appointment is designated to outreach and awareness initiatives, such as the annual Disability Awareness Symposium and advising student disability groups (Disabled Students and Allies Club and Delta Alpha Di). In this capacity, I coordinate and develop Access Center awareness events and lead and supervise the Disability Awareness Coordinator and Access Center intern/s.

RESEARCH ASSISTANT • COLLABORATIVE ON HEALTH REFORM AND INDEPENDENT LIVING (CHRIL) • WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY SPOKANE CAMPUS • JUNE 2018-JUNE 2020

- An hourly research assistantship to work on drafting CHRIL Center grants and projects. This research position also assists with the development and creation of disability related projects relevant to the mission of the CHRIL and collaborators. Activities include website redesign, grant writing, and Disability Stories Project coordination.

- The Collaborative on Health Reform and Independent Living (CHRIL) is funded by a 5-year Disability and Rehabilitation Research Program (DRRP) from the National Institute on Disability, Independent Living, and Rehabilitation Research (NIDILRR grant number 90DP0075-01-00). The CHRIL brings together disability advocates and researchers from 4 institutions (Washington State University, the University of Kansas, George Mason University, and the Independent Living Research Utilization program at TIRR Memorial Hermann Hospital) to systematically investigate and disseminate essential findings about how the Affordable Care Act's implementation affects working age adults with disabilities.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT • ADVANCE AT WSU • WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY PROVOST OFFICE • JANUARY 2018- JULY 2019

- The graduate assistantship is provided to support the development and implementation of ADVANCE related projects and grants. In this position, I report to the director of ADVANCE at WSU and assist with program development, logistics and event coordination, website development, and marketing of ADVANCE related materials.
- ADVANCE at WSU strives to increase the participation of women with academic careers in the fields of science, technology, engineering, mathematics, and medicine (STEMM) and diverse faculty in any discipline by providing funding opportunities for individuals working toward achieving the program's goals. Our vision is to develop an inclusive research institution whose faculty are supported by a system that promotes career-long excellence for all, irrespective of gender or minority status. We focus on work/life transition points—especially those that disproportionately impact women and diverse faculty—and any obstacles to recruiting, hiring, retaining, and advancing exceptional, diverse faculty.

GRADUATE RESEARCH ASSISTANT • EDWARD R. MURROW COLLEGE OF COMMUNICATION CENTER FOR MEDIA AND HEALTH PROMOTION • WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY • JANUARY 2013- SUMMER 2018

- General office assistant to Murrow Center Faculty and Staff
- Coordinated Dr. Annie Lang's visit to WSU and Murrow Center and her seminar: "Processing Substance Cues and Prevention Messages: Individual Differences in Biological Responses and Motivated Cognition."
- Coordinated Dr. Arvind Singhal's visit to WSU and Murrow Center and his Presentation: "An Afternoon of Entertainment Education, Social Justice Initiatives, and Liberation."
- Assisted to promote the Research Center through social media and other marketing avenues

Great Plays Research Assistant. Funding Agency: ABMRF/ The Foundation for Alcohol Research and Miller Coors

- Worked on projects relating to media literacy and nutrition, social norms and expectancies, liquor sales privatization, including population risk assessments
- Wrote articles for the Great Plays Grant: evaluate strategies to prevent risky drinking behaviors among college students
- Helped with the implementation and organization of fraternity and sorority focus groups on the WSU Pullman campus
- Assisted with pre, post, and delayed post-test survey implementation and fraternity and sorority houses

The Impact of Washington State Initiative I-1183 on College Students Lead Researcher.

Funding Agency: The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, Award No. 120297-001

- Developed and designed focus group protocols and recruited over 50 undergraduate college students to participate in a series of five focus groups (3 female and 2 male)
- Conducted semester long focus groups with undergraduate college students for the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation
- Drafted a report to the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation "College Students' Perceptions of Spirits Sales Privatization (I-1183) in Washington State" with the assistance of Murrow Graduate researchers

- Drafted a conference paper with the assistance of Murrow Graduate researchers to be presented at AEJMC: Liquor Privatization Makes Cents: College Students' Perceptions of Spirits Sales Privatization Following Implementation of the Law

Agriculture and Food Research Initiative (AFRI) Social Media Research Expert: A Family-Based Media Literacy Approach to Improving Youth and Family Nutrition (AFRI): Research assistant to Erica Weintraub Austin for $2.5 Million grant funded by the National Institute of Food and Agriculture, Award No. 2012-68001-19618

- Transcribed and coded focus groups for the Agriculture and Food Research Initiative (AFRI)
- Developed a social media curriculum and posting chart as a supplemental social media element for the media literacy curriculum. The social media supplementary materials were specifically created for Parent Participants in 5 extension counties and coded participant comments, likes, and views and created a frequency chart that correlated to curriculum outcomes.
- Developed a media literacy database, showcasing significant media literacy measures across various platforms
- Social media training coordinator for AFRI Extension Curriculum Trainings (September 2014 at Ellensburg Campus, September 2015 at WSU Pullman Campus). Trained a team of 20 extension educators and AFRI team members to ensure effective and consistent implementation of a 5-county field test funded by a $2.5 Million USDA grant.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT • GRADUATE SCHOOL • WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY • JUNE 2016- SUMMER 2018

- The graduate assistantship is provided to support development and implementation of the Graduate School Professional Development Initiative, a new joint partnership between the Graduate School and the GPSA. In this position, I report to the Associate Dean of the Graduate School with oversight of this Initiative, which is intended to enhance the graduate student training and facilitate a smooth transition into future careers in academia, government, or industry and the private-sector.
- Coordinated and Implemented a total of 33 university-wide workshops and events for the Fall 2016 and Spring 2017 semesters and coordinated 45 university-wide workshops and events for the Fall 2017 and Spring 2018 semesters.

- Scheduling community interviews and developing contacts in the Roundup Montana
- Conducted qualitative in-depth interviews with community participants and fire agency personnel

LIBERATING STRUCTURES LEADERSHIP CONSULTANT • THE PLEXUS INSTITUTE • FALL 2014- FALL 2018

- Liberating structures are microstructures that enhance relational coordination and trust. They introduce tiny shifts in the protocols of how we meet, plan, decide, and relate to each other. They put the facilitative power once reserved for experts in the hands of everyone. These microstructures can improve group dynamics for teaching and decision making.
- As a consultant for WSU, I coordinated several Liberating structures workshops and seminars with the assistance of WSU LS team members. With my guidance, the WSU GPSA now uses liberating structures to run GPSA senate meetings.

COMMUNICATION REPRESENTATIVE AND SENATOR • GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION (GPSA) • WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY • SPRING 2013-JANUARY 2017

- Chair of Wiley Research Exposition: organized and planned the Wiley Research Exposition reception dinner and event, average attendance is 400. I also promoted the event and recruited alumni judges and participants.
 - Gave away over $23,000 in scholarships to graduate students
 - Had 178 abstracts submitted by graduate students
 - 43 alumni judges attended event
 - 230 people attended Wiley Reception Dinner
- Organized the Murrow Town Hall Meeting March 26, 2014
- Attended Western NAGPS Leadership Conference (April 18-20, 2014)
- Served on the planning committee for Graduate Student Orientation 2014
